ATTORNEY-GENERAL.

NOTICE.

In the Matter of the "Special Surveys Act," and in the Matter of the Special Survey of Suburban Lots 37, 38, 39, 40, 43, 44, and 45 of Section 23, and Blocks 5, 9, and D, Suburban Lot No. 42, Land Registry Map No. 1153, Part of Suburban Lot 42, Land Registry Map No. 2012, and Part of Suburban Lot 41, and Part of Section 11, Land Registry Map No. 2015, Esquimalt District.

NOTICE is hereby given that the plans of the special survey of Suburban Lots 37, 38, 39, 40, 43, 44, and 45 of Section 23, and Blocks 5, 9, and D, Suburban Lot No. 42, Land Registry Map No. 1153, part of Suburban Lot 42, Land Registry Map No. 2012, and part of Suburban Lot 41 and part of Section 11, Land Registry Map No. 2015, Esquimalt District, which was directed to be specially surveyed by order of the Honourable the Attorney-General, dated the 25th day of May, 1921, and by subsequent order dated the 1st day of February, 1922, for the purpose of correcting any error or supposed error in respect of any existing survey or plan, or of correcting or adjusting any discrepancy between the occupancy of land and any registered subdivision or plans of such land, or of plotting land not before subdivided, or of showing the divisions of land of which the divisions are not shown on any plan of subdivision, together with a tabulated list of all occupied or improved lands, the boundaries of which appear as altered by the said plans, have been filed with the Provincial Secretary, and that the said plans will be submitted for the approval of His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor in Council; and that any complaints that may be made against such special survey or plans by any person interested in the property thereby affected will be heard by Carew Martin, barrister-at-law, at the Court-house, Bastion Street, City of Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia, on Wednesday, the 6th day of September, 1922, at the hour of 11 o'clock in the forenoon.

The said order authorizing the special survey directs that the costs and expenses in connection therewith shall be borne and paid by the Corporation of the Township of Esquimalt.

The "Special Surveys Act" provides that any person desiring to complain against such special survey or plan shall, before the hearing, deliver or cause to be delivered to the Attorney-General or to the person so appointed as aforesaid, by mail or otherwise, a written statement setting forth the nature and grounds of his complaint.

Dated at the City of Victoria, in the said Province of British Columbia, this 24th day of August, 1922.

A. M. MANSON,
4508-au24 Attorney-General.

ORDERS IN COUNCIL.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE.

VICTORIA, August 21st, 1922.

PRESENT:

HIS HONOUR THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by "An Act respecting Pound Districts" it is enacted that the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, by Order in Council made public by notice in the British Columbia Gazette, constitute any part of the Province of British Columbia not within the limits of a municipality into a pound district:

And whereas under the provisions of this Act application has been made by proprietors of land in the area surrounding the Municipality of Ladysmith in the Newcastle Electoral District, and comprised within the following boundaries:—

Commencing at the central point of the mouth of Rock Creek, being a point on the westerly side of Oyster Harbour; thence in a general south-westerly direction, following the centre line of said Rock Creek to the point of intersection thereof with the southerly boundary of Lot 96, Oyster Land District; thence easterly, following said southerly boundary of said Lot 96 to the re-entrant angle thereof; thence southerly following the westerly boundary of said Lot and that of Lot 116, of said Oyster District, to the south-west corner of said Lot 116; thence easterly, following the southerly boundary of said Lot 116, and that of Lot 49, of said Oyster District, produced easterly to the centre-line of 103-Creek; thence in a general south-easterly direction, following said centre-line of said creek to the westerly side of Oyster Harbour aforesaid; thence in a general north-westerly direction to and along high-water mark of the westerly shore of said harbour to the point of commencement; save and excepting thereout of the above-described area, that portion of said area which is covered by the Municipality of Ladysmith, to constitute the said district a pound district.

And whereas notice of intention to constitute such district a pound district was given in accordance with the requirements of the Act, and no objection has been made by any proprietor within the proposed pound district:

On the recommendation of the Honourable the Minister of Agriculture, and under the provisions of the "Pound District Act," His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia, by and with the advice of his Executive Council, has been pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the said area be constituted a pound district.

[L.S.] J. D. MACLEAN,
4470-au31 Clerk, Executive Council.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE.

VICTORIA, July 27th, 1922.

PRESENT:

HIS HONOUR THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS by an Act respecting pound districts it is enacted that the Lieutenant-Governor in Council may, by Order in Council made public by notice in the British Columbia Gazette, constitute any part of the Province of British Columbia not within the limits of a municipality into a pound district:

And whereas under the provisions of this Act application has been made by proprietors of land within the Townsite of Powell River, in the Comox Electoral District, as comprised within the following described boundaries: Commencing at a post on the shore-line of Malaspina Strait, situate two thousand and fifty feet from a post planted on shore-line of said Strait, which said last-mentioned post lies two thousand five hundred and thirty feet and on a bearing south seven degrees west from the corner post of Lot Four hundred and fifty on Powell River; thence east four hundred feet; thence north one thousand six hundred and seventy feet; thence north twenty-eight degrees west eight hundred and sixty feet; thence north seventy-six degrees west seven hundred and fifty feet; thence north fourteen degrees east four hundred feet; thence north thirty-three degrees five minutes east five hundred and seventy feet; thence north twenty-three degrees east to a point on the line running east from the corner post of Lot Four hundred and fifty on Powell River; thence east two thousand three hundred feet; thence south twenty-five degrees east seven thousand feet; thence south sixty-five degrees west to the shore-line of Malaspina Strait; thence northerly and following the shore-line to point of commencement, to constitute the said district a pound district:

And whereas notice of intention to constitute such district a pound district was given in accordance with the requirements of the Act, and no objection has been made by any proprietor within the proposed pound district:

On the recommendation of the Honourable the Minister of Agriculture, and under the provisions of the "Pound District Act," His Honour the Lieutenant-Governor of British Columbia, by and with the advice of his Executive Council, has been pleased to order, and it is hereby ordered, that the Townsite of Powell River be constituted a pound district.

AT THE GOVERNMENT HOUSE AT OTTAWA.

Monday, the 24th day of July, 1922.

PRESENT:

HIS EXCELLENCY THE DEPUTY GOVERNOR-GENERAL IN COUNCIL.

WHEREAS application has been received from the Canadian Pacific Railway Company for parcels of land for right-of-way purposes from Mile 7.95 to Mile 8.74, comprising portions of the North-west Quarter of Section 14, the North-east Quarter of Section 15, the South-east Quarter of Section 22, and the South-west Quarter of Section 23, Township 27, Range 19, west of the 5th meridian, British Columbia, as shown coloured pink on the plan of the Canadian Pacific Railway, Mountain Subdivision, through said quarter-sections, approved and confirmed by E. Deville, Surveyor-General on the 15th day of April, 1920, and on record in the Department of the Interior as Plan No. 30430 and on record in the Land Registry Office at Nelson, in the Province of British Columbia as Plan No. 1402:

And whereas the Company has surrendered to the Crown the land in the North-west Quarter of Section 14, the North-east Quarter of Section 15, and the South-west Quarter of Section 23, Township 27, Range 19, west of the 5th meridian, formerly held under patent.

Therefore the Deputy of His Excellency the Governor-General in Council, on the recommendation of the Acting Minister of the Interior, is pleased to authorize and doth hereby authorize a grant to the Canadian Pacific Railway Company of the land applied for, as above described, for the purposes of its right-of-way.

(Signed.) RODOLPHE BOUDREAU,

PRIVATE BILLS.

RULE 76.

ALL APPLICATIONS for Private Bills, properly the subject of legislation by the Legislative Assembly of British Columbia, within the purview of the "British North America Act, 1867"—whether for the erection of a Bridge, the making of a Railway, Tramway, Turnpike Road, Telegraph or Telephone Line; the construction or improvement of a Harbour, Canal, Lock, Dam, Slide, or other like work; the granting of a right of Ferry; the incorporation of any particular trade or calling, or of any Joint-stock Company; or otherwise for granting to any individual or individuals any exclusive or peculiar rights or privileges whatever, or for doing any matter or thing which in its operation would affect the rights or property of other parties, or relate to any particular class of the community, or for making any amendment of a like nature to any former Act—shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant. Such notice shall be published in the British Columbia Gazette and in one daily and one weekly newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. When the proposed Private Bill is of a local nature, the notice shall be furthermore published in some newspaper in the electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper therein, then in the nearest electoral district in which a newspaper is published. Such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of six weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

72. No Petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any Report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no Motion for the suspension or modification of this Rule shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committee charged with consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this Rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the Petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall, in either case pay double the fees required as herein mentioned, unless the House shall order to the contrary. Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session, a printed copy of such Bill, a copy of the Petition to be presented to the House, together with copies of the notices published. Such publication to be proved by affidavit or declaration to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House. At the time of depositing the Bill, the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars. If a copy of the Bill, Petition, and notices shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session, and if the Petition has not been presented within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees paid shall be returned.

77. Before any Petition, praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a Toll Bridge, is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Rule 76, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts and vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

78. All Private Bills for Acts of Incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference the clauses of the General Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills. Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the General Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Rule shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

82. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in Small Pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to be run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

By Rule 83, a model form of Railway Bill is adopted. A copy of same can be obtained upon application to the Clerk.

All Bills to incorporate or amend Bills incorporating railway companies are to be drawn in accordance with the Model Bill.

The provisions contained in any Bill which are not in accord with the Model Bill shall be inserted between brackets.

Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any such Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for the same.

In the case of Bills to Incorporate Companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 72, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

Every Petition for a Bill to incorporate a company shall state the name of the proposed company.

Petition signed by agents or attorneys must be accompanied by the authority of such agent, etc.

Dated April 2nd, 1921.

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

No. 6551.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Crofton Logging Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1921," as a Limited Company.

The capital of the Company is ten thousand dollars, divided into ten thousand shares.

The registered office of the Company is situate at Crofton, in the Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this twenty-ninth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two.

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The objects for which the Company has been incorporated are:—

(a.) To carry on business as loggers and logging contractors, and to carry on a general logging and lumber business:

(b.) To carry on business as sawmill-owners, lumbermen, and lumber merchants, and to manufacture, prepare for market, import, export, and deal in logs, timber, and lumber of all kinds:

(c.) To acquire and operate sawmills, planing-mills, drying-kilns, machine-shops, and plant machinery of all kinds:

(d.) To carry on business as house-builders and building contractors:

(e.) To acquire by purchase, lease, exchange, or otherwise any lands, timber, timber lands, timber leases, or licences to cut timber on any lands of the Crown, and generally any real and personal property which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and to buy, sell, own, lease, or exchange, the same as may be advantageous to the interests of the Company:

(f.) To buy, own, sell, repair, build, charter, and operate steamers, steam-tugs, and vessels:

(g.) To record, purchase, or otherwise acquire water and water records, privileges, and grants, and to develop and turn the same to account, and to construct and maintain power-works, hydraulic works, electrical works, tramways, and to utilize, sell, or otherwise dispose of the power and energy:

(h.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(i.) To make advances in cash, goods, and other supplies to other persons, companies, or firms, and to take and hold real estate and personal securities for the same:

(j.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or businesses in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(k.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which may be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and as the consideration for the same to pay cash or to issue shares, stocks, or obligations of this Company:

(l.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(m.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(n.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire, and to hold, mortgage, lease, let, and sell, any real or personal property, stocks, bonds, and shares and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business:

(o.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and for the purpose of securing same and interest, or for any other purpose, to mortgage or charge the undertaking or all or any part of the property of the Company, present or after acquired, or its uncalled capital; and to create, issue, make, draw, accept, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, obligations, and other negotiable and transferable instruments:

(p.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(q.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among its members in specie:

(r.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the exercise of the above powers or any of them. 4529-au31

H. G. GARRETT.

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The objects for which the Company has been incorporated are:—

(a.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, or otherwise, and hold, the lands, tenements, and hereditaments and any and every interest therein, and to sell, lease, develop, or turn to account and otherwise deal in lands, tenements, and hereditaments so acquired by purchase or otherwise:

(b.) To distribute, sell, or use water-power for mechanical, irrigation, domestic, or other purposes for which water or other power may be applied, sold, or used:

(c.) To establish, operate, maintain stores, boarding-houses, trading-posts, and carry on a general merchandise business:

(d.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or to apply to the executive authority for any order for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose that may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(e.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government or authority (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, bonus, or concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, or concessions:

(f.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location, or otherwise, and hold, mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, mining lands, prospects, licences, and mining rights of every description, and to work, develop, operate, turn to account, sell, or otherwise dispose thereof:

(g.) To dig, drill, or bore for, raise, crush, wash, smelt, reduce, refine, amalgamate, assay, analyse, and otherwise treat gold, silver, copper, lead, iron, coal, petroleum, natural gas, and any other ore, deposit, metal, or mineral whatsoever, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to render the same merchantable, and to buy, sell, and deal in the same or any product thereof:

(h.) To engage in any branch of mining, smelting, milling, and refining minerals:

(i.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise timber lands, leases, or claims, rights to cut timber, surface rights and rights-of-way, water rights and privileges, patents, patent rights, and concessions, and other real or personal property:

(j.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise, and to construct, operate, maintain, or alter, trails, roads, ways, tramways, reservoirs, dams, flumes, race and other ways, watercourses, canals, aqueducts, pipe-lines, wells, tanks, bridges, wharves, piers, mills, pumping plants, factories, foundries, furnaces, coke-ovens, crushing-works, smelting-works, concentrating-works, refining-works, hydraulic, electrical, and other works and appliances, power devices and plants of every kind, laboratories, warehouses, boarding-houses, dwellings, buildings, machinery plant, and other works and conveniences, and to buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in all kinds of goods, stores, provisions, implements, chattels, and effects:

(k.) To build, purchase, lease, hire, charter, navigate, use, and operate cars, wagons, and other vehicles, boats, ships, and other vessels:

(l.) To sell or otherwise dispose of ore, metal, oil, gas, or mineral product, and to take contracts for mining-work of all kinds, and to accept as the consideration shares, stock, debentures, or other securities of any limited company, wheresoever incorporated and carrying on any business, directly or indirectly, conducive to the objects of this Company, whether or not such shares (except the shares of a company having non-personal liability), stock, debentures, or other securities are fully paid up, and to sell or otherwise dispose thereof:

(m.) To enter into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, or co-operation with any person or company, wheresoever incorporated, carrying on or about to carry on any business, transaction, or undertaking which such person or company is authorized to carry on:

(n.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company, wheresoever incorporated, carrying on any business permitted to or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(o.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(p.) To borrow, raise, or secure the payment of money in such manner as it shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures charged upon all or any part of its property, including uncalled capital, so, however, that the total amount borrowed, raised, or secured and outstanding shall not, without the sanction of a general meeting of the Company, exceed one-quarter of the capital for the time being paid up; but nothing in this clause contained shall limit or affect any power of borrowing vested in the directors under the memorandum or articles:

(q.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members in specie:

(r.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertaking or the whole or any part of the property and rights of the Company, and to accept as consideration therefor shares, stock, debentures, or other securities of any limited company, wheresoever incorporated and carrying on any business, directly or indirectly, conducive to the objects of a specially limited company, if such shares (except the shares of a company having non-personal liability), stock, debentures, or other securities are fully paid up:

(s.) To procure the Company to be registered, licensed, or recognized in any part of Canada or in any other country, and to accept rights and powers to carry on its business therein:

(t.) To do all or any of the above things as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others. 4520-au31

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

No. 6536.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Horsfall and Jordan, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1921," as a Limited Company.

The capital of the Company is thirty thousand dollars, divided into thirty thousand shares.

The registered office of the Company is situate at Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this eighteenth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two.

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The objects for which the Company has been incorporated are:—

(a.) To acquire and take over the business now carried on in the Province of British Columbia under the style or firm of "Horsfall and Jordan," and all or any of the assets and liabilities of the proprietors of that business in connection therewith, and with a view thereto to enter into and carry into effect, with such (if any) modifications or alterations as may be agreed upon, an agreement already prepared and expressed to be made between Thomas Harry Stewart Horsfall and Joseph Edwin Jordan of the one part, and this Company of the other part, a draft of which has for the purpose of identification been subscribed by John Young Copeman, solicitor of the Supreme Court of British Columbia:

(b.) To carry on the business of loggers and logging contractors in all its branches, lumber-mill proprietors and lumber merchants:

(c.) To construct wharves, canals, reservoirs, embankments, irrigation-works, buildings, and other works generally; to clear land, carry out mining-work, and generally to carry on the business of builders and contractors for the construction, repair, and development of public and private works:

(d.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company:

(e.) To enter into partnership or any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, reciprocal concession, or co-operation with any person, partnership, or company, and to promote and aid in promoting, constitute, form, or organize and manage, supervise and control companies, syndicates, or partnerships and undertakings of all kinds for the purpose of acquiring and undertaking any property or liabilities of the Company, or advancing, directly or indirectly, the objects thereof, and for any other purpose which this Company may think expedient:

(f.) To purchase or otherwise acquire, hold, sell, dispose of, deal and traffic in real and personal property of all kinds, and any interest in real or personal property:

(g.) To enter into any arrangements with any Government or any public authority that may seem conducive to any of the Company's objects, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any concessions, grants, rights, powers, and privileges whatsoever which may seem to the Company capable of being turned to account, and to work, develop, exercise, and to turn to account the same:

(h.) To explore, work, exercise, and develop any minerals in or upon the Company's land, and purchase, take on lease, or otherwise acquire any mines, mining rights, and metalliferous lands, and work, exercise, and develop the same, and construct all works and carry on all metalliferous operations necessary or usual in the winning and getting of minerals:

(i.) To carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(j.) To manage, develop, and turn to account any property acquired by or in which the Company is interested:

(k.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money by mortgage or by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, or in such other manner as the Company shall think fit, and for the purposes aforesaid to charge all or any of the Company's property or assets, present and future, including its uncalled capital, and collaterally or further to secure any securities of the Company by a trust deed or other assurance:

(l.) To make, draw, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(m.) To lend money, either with or without security, and generally to such persons, including directors and members of the Company, and upon such terms and conditions as the Company may think fit:

(n.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(o.) To pay for any property that may be acquired by the Company either in cash or in fully paid-up shares of the Company, or partly in cash and partly in such fully paid-up shares:

(p.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof in such manner and for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares (fully or partly paid up), debentures, debenture stock, or securities of any other company, whether promoted by this Company for the purpose or not, and to improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(q.) To distribute any of the profits of the Company among the members in specie:

(r.) To make, enter into, seal and deliver, accept and receive all deeds, mortgages, conveyances, assurances, transfers, assignments, grants, and contracts necessary to carry out the purposes of the Company and to promote its objects and business:

(s.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(t.) It is hereby declared and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph hereof shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

(g.) To sell, let, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, enfranchise, dispose of, turn to account, abandon, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(h.) To employ and pay mining experts, engineers, agents, and other persons, partnerships, companies, or corporations, and to organize, equip, and dispatch expeditions for prospecting, exploring, reporting on, surveying, working, and developing lands, mines, farms, districts, territories, and properties in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and whether the same are the property of the Company or otherwise; and to make advances to and pay for or contribute to the expenses of and otherwise assist any persons or company prospecting, acquiring, settling, or farming, building on, mining, or otherwise developing the said lands, farms, districts, territories, and properties, or desirous of so doing:

(i.) To establish or promote or concur in establishing or promoting any other company whose objects shall include the acquisition and taking-over all or any of the assets and liabilities of the Company, or shall be in any manner calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects or interests of the Company, and to acquire, underwrite, and hold shares, stock, or securities of and guarantee the payment of any securities issued by or any obligation of any such company:

(j.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of the Company:

(k.) To enter into partnership or any joint-purse arrangement or any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or co-operation with or agency for any company, firm, or person carrying on or engaged in, or proposing to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction within the objects of the Company, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(l.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, debenture stock, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(m.) To establish and promote or concur in establishing or promoting associations, companies, syndicates, and undertakings of all kinds, and to underwrite or secure by underwriting or otherwise the subscription of any part of the capital of any such association, company, syndicate, or undertaking, and to pay or receive any commission, brokerage, or other remuneration in connection therewith:

(n.) To buy or otherwise acquire, issue, place, sell, or otherwise deal in stocks, shares, bonds, debentures, and securities of all kinds in the Province of British Columbia and elsewhere, and to give any guarantee of security in relation thereto or otherwise:

(o.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue bills of exchange, promissory notes, debentures, bills of lading, or other negotiable or transferable instruments or securities:

(p.) To invest money at interest on the security of land of any tenure, building, farm stock, stocks, shares, securities, merchandise, and any other property in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, and generally to lend and advance money to any persons or companies without security, or upon such securities and terms and subject to such conditions as may seem expedient:

(q.) Generally to carry on and undertake any business, undertaking, transaction, or operation, whether financial, manufacturing, trading, or otherwise, as an individual capitalist may lawfully undertake and carry out:

(r.) To borrow or raise money and receive money on deposit, and for the purpose of securing or discharging any such money or any debt, or any contract of indemnity, or other obligation or liability of or binding upon the Company, to mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real and personal property and assets of the Company, present or future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company; and to create and issue, at par or at a premium or discount, debentures, mortgage debentures, debenture stock, and other securities, payable to bearer or otherwise, and either permanent or redeemable, with or without a bonus or premium, and to secure any obligations or securities of the Company by means of covering or trust deeds or otherwise, and to confer upon any encumbrancer such powers of making and enforcing calls and of exchanging any debentures or debenture stock for shares in the capital of the Company and otherwise as may be thought fit:

(s.) To distribute among the members, or any class or classes of the members, in specie, any property of the Company, or any proceeds of sale or disposal of any property of the Company, or shares, debentures, or debenture stock received by the Company in any other company, and for such purpose to distinguish and separate capital from profits, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made, except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law:

(t.) To issue any shares of the Company at par or at a premium or credited as fully paid, or in part paid up, and to give the call of shares, and to confer any preferential or special right to the allotment of shares on such terms and in such manner as may seem expedient:

(u.) To enter into arrangements with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(v.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and either as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and either by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(w.) To transfer to or otherwise cause to be vested in any company or person or persons all or any of the lands and property of the Company, to be held in trust for the Company, or on such terms for working, developing, or disposing of the same as may be considered expedient:

(x.) To acquire licences for water and obtain the benefit of all the provisions of the "Water Act, 1914," and amendments, and to construct and operate works and supply or utilize water or power produced therefrom in any manner permitted by law:

(y.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the promotion, formation, and registration of this or any other company, including registration and stamp fees, legal expenses, printing and advertising, and the establishment of agencies of this or any other company, and the obtaining the subscription of the shares or debentures thereof, including all commissions and other remuneration to brokers or other persons for procuring or guaranteeing subscriptions for or for underwriting, placing, selling, or otherwise disposing of any of the shares, debentures, or other securities or property of this or any other company, and to enter into any contract or contracts for any of the purposes hereof:

(z.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them; and the intention is that the objects specified in each of the paragraphs of this clause shall, unless otherwise therein provided, be regarded as independent objects, and shall be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of either any other paragraph or the name of the Company:

(aa.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any place abroad, and to establish local registries and agencies and branch businesses in any part of the world. And it is hereby declared that the name "company" in this clause, when not applied to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, political, mercantile, or otherwise, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in the Province of British Columbia or elsewhere, or whether existing or hereafter to be formed.

To remunerate any Company for services rendered or to be rendered to the Company in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any bonds, debentures, or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(9.) To purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire the whole or any part of the business, property, franchises, goodwill, rights, and privileges held or enjoyed by any person or firm or by any corporation carrying on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, and to pay therefor either wholly or partly in cash or wholly or partly in bonds, paid-up shares, or other securities of the Company or otherwise, and to undertake the liabilities of any such person, firm, or corporation:

(10.) To enter into partnership or any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(11.) To purchase, take, or acquire by original subscription or in exchange for the shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of this Company or otherwise, and to hold, sell, or otherwise dispose of, shares, stock, whether common or preferred, debentures, bonds, and other obligations in any other company having objects similar in whole or in part to the objects of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to vote all shares so held through such agent or agents as the directors may appoint:

(12.) To enter into any arrangements with any authorities (Government, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry on or exercise and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(13.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of lading, cheques, bills of exchange, warehouse receipts, warrants, securities under the "Bank Act," bonds, debentures, mortgages, and other negotiable or transferable instruments or securities of every nature and kind whatsoever:

(14.) To borrow, raise, or secure the repayment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures, debenture stock (perpetual or terminable), bonds, mortgages, or any other securities founded, based, or charged upon all or any of the property and rights of the Company, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, or without any such security, and upon such terms as to priority or otherwise as the Company shall think fit:

(15.) To advance and lend money upon such security as may be thought proper, or without taking any security therefor:

(16.) To provide for the welfare of persons in the employment of the Company or formerly engaged in any business acquired by the Company, and the wives, widows, and families of such persons, by grants of money, pensions, insurance, or other payments, and by providing or subscribing towards such places of instruction and recreation and hospitals, dispensaries, medical and other attendance, and other assistance as the Company shall think fit, and to form, subscribe to, or otherwise aid benevolent, religious, scientific, national, or other institutions or objects which shall have any moral or other claim to support or aid by the Company by reason of the locality of its operations or otherwise:

(17.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and property and rights of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts, as may be determined by the Company, of the purchase-money, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other deal with the whole or part of the property, estate, effects, and rights of the Company, amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(18.) To pay for any lands, business, property, rights, privileges, and concessions acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, and generally to satisfy any payment by or obligations of the Company by the issue of shares of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up, or of debentures or other securities of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up:

(19.) To distribute any of the assets of the Company amongst the members in specie, and particularly by bonds, debentures, or other securities of any other company formed to take over the whole or any part of the assets or liabilities of this Company, but so that no such distribution amounting to a reduction of the capital be made without the sanction of the Court where necessary:

(20.) To do all or any of the matters hereby authorized either alone or in conjunction with or as factors or agents for any other companies or persons:

(21.) To hold in the name of others any property which the Company is authorized to acquire, and to carry on or do any of the matters aforesaid in the Province of British Columbia or any other Province, State, or Colony, and either in the name of the Company or any company, firm, or person as trustee for this Company:

(22.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company or its predecessors in business, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance:

(23.) To obtain any provisional order or Act of Parliament of the Legislature of any Province of Canada for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or application which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(24.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(25.) Generally to carry on any other business, except the business of banking, the construction and operation of railways, telegraph and telephone lines, the business of insurance, or the business of a trust company, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently or profitably carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of and render profitable any of the Company's properties or rights, and to do all and everything necessary, suitable, convenient, or proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or attainment of any one or more of the objects herein enumerated incidental to the powers herein named, or which shall at any time appear to be conducive or expedient for the protection or benefit of the Company. And it is hereby declared that in the interpretation of this clause the meaning of the Company's objects shall not be restricted by reference to any other object, or by the juxtaposition of two or more objects, and that in the event of any ambiguity this clause shall be construed in such a way as to widen and not to restrict the powers of the Company. 4391-au17

(34.) To apply for any Acts, Orders in Council, certificates, licences, or any other powers or authorities, which the Company may consider desirable for carrying out its objects, or otherwise, in the interests of the Company, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which to the Company may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to interfere with or prejudice its interests:

(35.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake, the whole or any part of the business, property, liabilities, and undertaking of any person, corporation, or company carrying on or entitled to carry on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on or which can be carried on so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(36.) To amalgamate with any person or persons, or any company established for objects altogether or in part similar to the objects of this Company, or otherwise, and for such consideration, either in shares or debentures of another company, or cash, as the Company may think fit; and to take or otherwise acquire and hold shares in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(37.) To borrow, raise, or secure money (with or without powers of sale or other special conditions), either by a charge on or deposit of any part, or all of the Company's property of any kind soever, or without such charge; to draw, make, accept, endorse, issue, execute, and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, and other negotiable instruments; and to borrow or raise money on or by bonds or debentures (charged upon all or any part of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital), or acceptances, endorsements, or promissory notes of the Company, and other negotiable instruments:

(38.) To register or license the Company in any other part of the British Empire or elsewhere:

(39.) To guarantee and become surety for the performance of any contract, obligation, or undertaking made or to be made by any person, firm, or corporation whatsoever, and to secure the performance thereof by mortgage or charge on all or any of the property or assets of the Company including its unpaid or uncalled capital for the time being, or in any other manner whatsoever: Provided that nothing herein contained shall confer on the Company the powers of an insurance company within the meaning of the "Insurance Act," British Columbia Statutes, 1913, chapter 33:

(40.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of, or incidental to the formation, promotion, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or the guaranteeing the placing of any of the shares of the Company's capital, or any debentures or other securities in the Company:

(41.) To secure the fulfilment of any contracts or engagements entered into by the Company by mortgage or charge on all or any of the property of the Company and its unpaid or uncalled capital for the time being, or in any other manner whatsoever:

(42.) To carry on any other business (manufacturing or otherwise) which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with any of the above-specified businesses, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(43.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required, upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(44.) To grant pensions, allowances, gratuities, and bonuses to employees or ex-employees of the Company or its predecessors in business or the dependents of such persons, and to support or subscribe to any charitable or other institutions, clubs, societies, or funds:

(45.) To lend money on any terms that may be thought fit and particularly to persons having dealings with the Company:

(46.) To distribute any of the Company's property among the members in specie:

(47.) To do all such things and to carry on such businesses as the Company may think are incidental and conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(48.) To do all or any of the above things above set out as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

"COMPANIES ACT, 1921."

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

No. 6501.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Edward Douglas Investment Company, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1921," as a Limited Company.

The capital of the Company is four hundred and fifty thousand dollars, divided into four thousand five hundred shares.

The registered office of the Company is situate at Vancouver, in the Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this thirty-first day of July, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two.

[L.S.] W. D. CARTER.

Deputy Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The objects for which the Company has been incorporated are:—

(a.) To purchase or otherwise acquire lands, houses, buildings, and hereditaments, either for an estate in fee-simple or for any less estate, whether vested or contingent and whether immediate or reversionary, and whether subject or not to any charges or encumbrances, and to hold, sell, let, mortgage, charge, or otherwise deal with any or all of such lands, tenements, or hereditaments:

(b.) To erect and construct, either by the Company or through other parties, houses, buildings, or works of every description on any land of the Company or upon any other land or hereditaments, and to pull down, rebuild, enlarge, alter, and improve, existing houses, buildings, or works thereon; to convert and subdivide any land of the Company into lots and roads and other conveniences, and otherwise generally to deal with and improve the property of the Company:

(c.) To acquire and hold shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stocks, bonds, obligations, and securities issued or guaranteed by any Company wheresoever constituted or carrying on business and debentures, debenture stock, bonds, obligations, and securities, issued or guaranteed by any Government, commissioners, public body, or authority, whether federal, municipal, local, or otherwise, and whether in Canada or elsewhere:

(d.) To acquire any such shares, stocks, debentures, debenture stock, bonds, obligations, or securities, by original subscription, tender, purchase, exchange, or otherwise, and to subscribe for the same, either conditionally or otherwise, and to guarantee the subscription thereof, and to exercise and enforce all rights and powers conferred by or incident to the ownership thereof:

(e.) To take part in the management, supervision, or control of the business or operations of any Company or undertaking, and for that purpose to appoint and remunerate any directors, accountants, or other experts or agents:

(f.) To transact or carry on all kinds of financial agency business, and in particular in relation to the investment of money, the sale of property, and the collection and receipt of money:

(g.) To advance money to any person or persons or to corporations, either at interest or without, upon the security of freehold, leasehold, or other estate, by way of mortgage or upon marketable security:

(h.) To undertake or direct the property and estates of any tenure or kind of any persons, whether members of the Company or not, with power to advance at a discount all or any of the accruing rents and other incomings:

The objects of the Society are:—

Section 1. The objects of this Association are to encourage and foster a feeling of friendship between employing printers and allied employing trades; to devise ways and means for bettering the condition and advancing the interests of the industry in general; to spread this influence through the establishment of local offices and develop a spirit of co-operation in all matters of mutual interest:

Section 2. To effect a thorough organization of the employing printers and allied employing trades of Vancouver, Canada, with a view to improving the condition of the industry in every proper and lawful manner; to encourage a high standard of proficiency; to promote the interests of the printing business in all its branches; to maintain among its members a just and equitable method of conducting said business, and to meet at stated periods for the discussion and dissemination of reliable information relative to the best methods of conducting business from the standpoint of practical experience and of approved business ethics:

Section 3. To urge employing printers and allied employing trades to co-operate with one another; to eliminate the evils of ignorant and ruinous competition; to make the relationship of the entire printing trades harmonious, and to correct such further evils as may exist:

Section 4. To spread a wider knowledge of the elements of cost and what constitutes a proper remuneration for services rendered, to the end that competition may be honourable, just, and reasonable:

Section 5. This Association shall, at all times, be in a position to inform a member what price he should ask for any work he may be requested to figure for, but shall at no time attempt to coerce any member into quoting a set figure for any one particular job:

Section 6. To maintain a credit bureau, consisting of three members, for the collection and dissemination of credit information; to keep on record for the use of all subscribing members information regarding the credit and the methods of buyers that may be of value to members; to assist in settling any dispute between a member and his customer, the finding of the Bureau to be considered just, and may only be appealed to the Executive Committee in writing, accompanied by a fee of five dollars ($5), which fee is to be returned should the appeal be upheld:

Section 7. To standardize a code of ethics and trade customs for the guidance of its members in their dealings with each other and with their customers:

Section 8. To establish better trade relations between individual printers, between printers and other allied interests, and between all the interests involved in the furtherance of the general welfare of the Association.

(n.) For the purpose of the Company to draw, accept, endorse, and negotiate bills of exchange, promissory notes, and other negotiable instruments:

(o.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business (whether manufacturing or otherwise), property, rights, and liabilities of any company or person carrying on or authorized or intending to carry on any business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or owning or being entitled to any property which it is considered desirable for this Company to acquire or to acquire an interest in, and to acquire, hold, and deal with the shares, stocks, or securities of any such company:

(p.) To allot credited as fully or partly paid up the shares or bonds, debentures or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part consideration for the purchase of any property acquired by the Company or for services rendered or other valuable consideration:

(q.) To buy or otherwise acquire in any way, and to hold, sell, or deal with any stocks, shares, securities, or obligations of any Government, authority, corporation, or company which may be considered capable of being properly held or dealt in or with by the Company:

(r.) To procure the registration or legal recognition of the Company in any part of the world:

(s.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company and for the purpose of securing or discharging any such money or any other debt or any contract of indemnity, or other obligation or liability of or binding upon the Company; to mortgage and charge the undertaking and all or any of the real property and personal property and assets of the Company, present or future, and all or any of the uncalled capital for the time being of the Company, and to create and issue at par or at a premium, or discount debentures, mortgage debentures, debenture stock and other securities payable to bearer or otherwise, and either permanent or redeemable or repayable, and to secure any obligations or securities of the Company by means of covering, or trust deeds or otherwise, and to confer upon any encumbrancer such powers of making and enforcing calls and exchanging any debentures or debenture stock for shares in the capital of the Company and otherwise, as may be thought fit:

(t.) To pay all expenses of and in connection with the incorporation or promotion of this or any other company, and the obtaining the subscription for any shares or securities thereof, and procuring or obtaining settlements and quotations upon any stock exchanges of any of such shares or securities:

(u.) To lend money to such parties and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers and persons having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee or be liable for the contracts or obligations of any such person, firm, or corporation, or for the payment of money or for the performance of any obligation:

(v.) To amalgamate with any other company whether by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of the undertaking or any part thereof, subject or not to the liabilities of this or any such other Company, with or without winding-up, or by sale or purchase (for shares or otherwise) of all the shares, stock debentures, or other securities of this or any other company, or in any other manner, and to enter into partnership or any arrangement in the nature of partnership, or any joint purse or profit-sharing arrangement or joint adventure with any company or person:

(w.) To take all necessary and proper steps in any Parliament or with any foreign, colonial, Provincial, or other Government, or with any authority, local, municipal, or otherwise, in any part of the world, for enabling the Company to give effect to these presents, or to carry any of the Company's objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose, and to oppose the granting of any Act, Bill, or provisional order or concession to others, and to apply for, procure, or obtain any powers, privileges, rights, or concessions for this Company or for any other company or person:

(x.) To give pensions, gratuities, donations, and emoluments to any person at any time in the employment of the Company or engaged in any business acquired by the Company, and the wives, widows, families, and dependents of any such persons, and to found, support, or subscribe to any schools, hospitals, dispensaries, dining-rooms, baths, and places of amusement, and any other national, educational, scientific, literary, religious, or charitable institutions or objects, and any trade societies (whether such societies be solely connected with any trade or trades carried on by the Company or not) and any other establishment which may be considered to be in any way calculated to advance the interests of the Company or of the persons employed by the Company, and to subscribe towards or guarantee the expenses of or otherwise take part in the promotion of any exhibition, and to make grants or gifts of land for any of such purposes:

(y.) To distribute among the members or any class of members in specie any property of the Company, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law:

(z.) To do all or any of the things aforesaid through subsidiary companies, and promote any company having objects in whole or in part similar to those of this Company, or whose objects shall include the acquisition of any of the assets or liabilities of this Company or the promotion of which shall be thought calculated to advance, directly or indirectly, the objects of this Company or the interest of its shareholders, and to acquire, hold, and deal in the shares, stocks, or securities of any such company:

(aa.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid in any part of the world, and either as principals or agents for others, and either in the name of the Company or of any person or company as trustee or agent of the Company, and either alone or in concurrence with any person, company, Government, or other body or authority:

(z.) To do all such other things as are, in the opinion of the directors, incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "Company" throughout this clause shall be deemed to include any Government, body, authority, partnership, association, or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not, and whether registered or domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere.

(3.) The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except where the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. Where in any of the subclauses of this clause a general term is used following one or more less general terms cjusden generis such general term shall not be deemed to take its meaning from or be restricted to the same genus as such less general terms.

CERTIFICATE OF INCORPORATION.

"COMPANIES ACT, 1921."

CANADA:

PROVINCE OF BRITISH COLUMBIA.

No. 6514.

I HEREBY CERTIFY that "Stinsons, Limited," has this day been incorporated under the "Companies Act, 1921," as a Limited Company.

The capital of the Company is ten thousand dollars, divided into ten thousand shares.

The registered office of the Company is situate at Victoria, in the Province of British Columbia.

Given under my hand and seal of office at Victoria, Province of British Columbia, this fifth day of August, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-two.

[L.S.]

W. D. CARTER,

Deputy Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The objects for which the Company has been incorporated are:—

(1.) To adopt and carry into effect with or without modification an agreement which has already been prepared, and is expressed to be made between J. O. Stinson, Senior; J. O. Stinson, Junior; and Hector McD. Stinson of the one part, and the Company of the other part, a copy whereof has for the purpose of identification been subscribed by Henry C. Hall, a solicitor of the Supreme Court:

(2.) To carry on the business of a general merchant and storekeeper in all its branches, and in particular to buy, sell, manufacture, and deal in goods, stores, consumable articles, chattels, and effects of all kinds, both wholesale and retail, and to transact every kind of agency business:

(3.) To lend and advance money to such parties and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers or any persons having dealings with the Company; and to make, draw, accept, endorse, and discount promissory notes, bills of exchange, and other negotiable instruments:

(4.) To purchase, acquire, and hold shares in and take over the business or undertaking and goodwill of any business or any other company or individual carrying on any business of a nature or character similar to any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, upon such terms as may be agreed, and to pay for such business or undertaking either in cash or with fully paid-up and non-assessable shares of this Company:

(5.) To invest and deal with the money of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(6.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, lease, mortgage, borrow money upon, dispose of, turn to account or otherwise deal with all or any part of the Company's property:

(7.) To acquire and undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, or liabilities of any person or company carrying on business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company:

(8.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(9.) To promote any other Company for the purpose of acquiring all or any part of the property, rights, and liabilities of the Company, or any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(10.) To acquire from the Government, either Provincial or Dominion, or any Municipality, or other source, authority, or otherwise, any concessions, licences, leases, rights, and privileges as may be found necessary or advisable for the attainment of the objects of the Company or any of them, and to obtain any Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, and to exercise generally all such powers as may from time to time be conferred on this Company by Act of Parliament, statute, by-laws, charter, licence, or other executive or legislative authority:

(11.) To borrow, raise, or secure the payment of moneys in such manner or form as the Company may think fit, and by such means as may from time to time be necessary, or deemed advisable for the purposes of this Company, and to mortgage or pledge any or all of the Company's assets, income, or uncalled capital, for the purposes of securing the same, and to make, grant, and execute mortgages, bills of sale, bonds, debentures, or other securities for the same:

(12.) To procure the Company to be registered, licensed, or recognized in any Province or territory in the Dominion of Canada, or elsewhere:

(13.) To do all such other acts and things as are incidental, necessary, instrumental, or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, or any of them, and to exercise generally such powers and privileges as may from time to time be conferred upon the Company, by any authorities whatsoever:

(14.) To remunerate any person or company for services rendered in placing or assisting to place any shares in the Company's capital or in debentures or debenture stock or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(15.) To distribute any of the property of the Company among the members thereof in specie or otherwise:

(16.) To do all or any of the above things on the British Columbian Coast and in the Province of British Columbia and generally in any part of the world, as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(17.) Provided that nothing in the foregoing contained shall authorize the company to exercise any of the powers referred to in section 14 of the "Companies Act, 1921":

(18.) And it is hereby declared that in the interpretation of this clause, the meaning of any of the Company's objects, as expressed, shall not be restricted by reference to any other object or by the juxtaposition of two or more objects, and that in the event of any ambiguity, this clause shall be construed in such a way as to widen and not to restrict, the powers of the Company. 4363-au10

(a.) To carry on the business of fishing in all or any of its branches, and to catch, purchase, can, freeze, salt, smoke, cure, preserve, treat, handle, pack, sell, barter, and deal in all kinds of fish, sea products of all kinds, and by-products of the same and any of them:

(b.) To manufacture, purchase, sell, lease, or otherwise acquire and to deal in all things, equipment, and commodities used or useful in the carrying-out of any or all of the foregoing objects; to erect, equip, purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, maintain, and operate storage warehouses of all kinds, canneries, factories, abattoirs, freezing-houses, warehouses, and other buildings and plants necessary or expedient for the purposes of the Company; to purchase, lease, or otherwise acquire, sell, and deal in licences, concessions, and other rights relating to fishing or foreshore rights, patents, fish-traps, canneries, and fishing-stations:

(c.) To purchase, lease, hire, repair, build, or otherwise acquire all kinds of boats and vessels, and to operate the same, either for the conveying of goods dealt in by the Company or for the general conveyance of freight and passengers, or either:

(d.) To purchase, acquire, promote, establish, and deal with, carry on, and dispose of any business or undertaking, assets, property, and liabilities of any person, persons, or corporation which may be conveniently carried on in connection with or in addition to any of the businesses aforesaid:

(e.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and to sell, exchange, surrender, lease, mortgage, charge, improve, turn to account, dispose of, and deal in and with real and personal property of all kinds and every interest therein:

(f.) To carry on any other business (whether manufacturing or otherwise) which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(g.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(h.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(i.) For the purposes of the Company, to borrow, raise, or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of promissory notes, bills of exchange, debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such security:

(j.) For the purpose of the Company, to draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, or other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(k.) To do all such things as may be incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects:

(l.) To do all or any of the above things, both wholesale and retail, as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through agents or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(n.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(o.) Where in any of the foregoing paragraphs a general term is used following one or more less general terms cjusdem generis, such general term shall not be deemed to take its meaning from or be restricted to the same genus as such less general term. The objects expressed in each of the foregoing paragraphs, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, shall be in nowise restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company.

(6.) To avail itself of and to have, hold, exercise, use, and enjoy all rights, powers, privileges, advantages, priorities, and immunities created, provided, and conferred by the "Water Act" and any amendment thereof, and any and all other laws pertaining to the appropriation and use of waters for any and all purposes whatsoever:

(7.) To acquire, operate, and carry on the business of a power company, and to apply water or water-power for producing any form of power, or for producing and generating electricity for the purposes of light, heat, and power, or any other purpose for which electricity may be applied; to acquire, construct, and operate water-works, and to distribute, sell, supply, or use water or water-power for mechanical, irrigation, domestic, or any other purposes for which water or other power may be supplied, sold, or used; to render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by acquiring, constructing, erecting, and operating any and all improvements of every sort whatsoever necessary for said purposes, including the diverting of the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into any other channel or channels:

(8.) To construct, equip, operate, and maintain electric, cable, or other tramways for the conveyance of passengers or freight:

(9.) To construct, equip, operate, and maintain telegraph and telephone systems and lines:

(10.) To carry on the business of an electric light company in all its branches, and to do any and all things necessary to generate, distribute, and supply electricity to any person, firm, or corporation or municipality:

(11.) To obtain by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location, or otherwise, and hold, mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, prospects, and mining lands, oil claims, leases, prospects, and lands, and mining rights of every description, and to work, develop, operate, and sell or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them or any interest therein, and to carry on the business of a mining, smelting, milling, and refining and oil company in all or any of its branches:

(12.) To acquire by lease, purchase, or otherwise lands containing sand, gravel, granite, sandstone or limestone, or other building substances or materials, and to carry on the business of quarry-owners and wholesale and retail dealers in any and all kinds of building materials:

(13.) To establish, operate, and maintain stores, trading-posts, and to carry on a general mercantile business; to carry on the business of hotel and inn-keepers:

(14.) To remove obstructions from any river, lake, creek, or stream, and to do all things necessary to make the same clear and fit for rafting and driving thereon logs, lumber, rafts, or crafts, and for such purposes to blast rocks, deepen channels, remove shoals or other impediments, or otherwise improve the navigability or floatability of any river, lake, creek, or stream:

(15.) To purchase, lease, take by licence, or otherwise acquire, sell, deal with, use, and dispose of any lands, timber licences or limits, grants, concessions, leases, mill-sites, and any real or personal properties of every description, and to work, develop the resources of, and turn to account the same in such manner as the Company may think fit:

(16.) To construct, build, acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise, maintain, improve, manage, operate, work, control, and superintend logging-railways, tramways, skidways, roads, wharves, bridges, docks, piers, booms, reservoirs, flumes, aqueducts, pipes, pipe-lines, and other works, apparatus, and conveniences which the Company may think, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the objects herein expressed:

(17.) To manufacture, buy, sell, export, import, and generally deal in ropes, cables, windlasses, tackle, and ship-building supplies generally:

(18.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to use, grant licences or rights in respect of, or otherwise turn to account, patents, patent rights, licences, concessions, trade-marks, secret processes, British, Canadian, and foreign, as to any invention, improvements, or process which may be considered conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Company, or which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(19.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, hire, or otherwise acquire, hold, maintain, and operate any real and personal property, wheresoever situated, and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and to sell or otherwise dispose of and turn to account all or any part of the same:

(20.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, hospitals, stores, shops, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions or allowances, and to make grants of land to or for any charitable or benevolent objects or purposes, or for any exhibition, or for any public, religious, general, or useful objects:

(21.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(22.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(23.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to pay for any lands, business, property, rights, privileges, and concessions acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company, and generally to satisfy any payment by or obligations of the Company, by the issue of shares of this Company or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up, or of debentures or other securities of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up:

(24.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or businesses in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(25.) To buy or otherwise acquire in any way and hold, sell, or deal with or in any stocks, shares, securities, or obligations of any Government, authority, corporation, or company which may be considered capable of being profitably held or dealt in or with by the Company:

(26.) To subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, sell, and give guarantees by way of underwriting or otherwise in relation to stocks, shares, debentures, obligations, and securities of any company, or any supreme, municipal, public, or local board or authority:

(27.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person, persons, partnership, association, or corporation; to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any person, association, or corporation, and in particular any person, association, or corporation being customers of or having any dealings with the Company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such person, association, or corporation, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same, and to consolidate with or amalgamate with any other company having objects similar to those of this Company:

(28.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and property and rights of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts as may be determined by the Company of the purchase-moneys, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, and rights of the Company amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(29.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(30.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or to apply to the executive authority for any order for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(31.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's interest, and to obtain from any such Government or authority, or take over from other persons or companies possessed of the same, any rights, privileges, bonuses, or concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(32.) To do all acts and things which may be necessary or desirable in connection with or to procure for the Company a legal recognition, domicile, and status in any colony, State, or territory in which any of its property, estate, effects, or rights may be situated or in which the Company may desire to carry on business, and to appoint local boards or committees, attorneys or agents, with such powers as the directors of the Company may determine, to represent the Company in any such colony, State, or territory:

(33.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and to secure the repayment of money and the interest thereon in such manner and on such terms as the directors may deem expedient, and in particular by the issue of bonds, debentures, or debenture stock charged upon the whole or any part of the undertaking, property, and assets of the Company, present or after acquired, including its uncalled capital:

(34.) To create, issue, make, sell, exchange, hypothecate, or otherwise deal with, draw, accept, endorse, discount, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures or debenture stock, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, or other negotiable or non-negotiable obligations:

(35.) To distribute any of the assets of the Company among its members in specie:

(36.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital or guaranteeing any debenture or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company, or the conduct of its business:

(37.) To do all or any of the matters aforesaid either as principals or agents, and either in the name of the Company or of any person or company as agent of the Company, and either alone or in concurrence with any person, company, Government, or other body or authority:

(38.) To do all such things as are in the opinion of the directors incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "company" throughout this clause shall be deemed to include any Government, body, authority, partnership, association, or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not, and whether registered or domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere.

The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except when the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause. 4518 au31

(d.) To manage land, buildings, and other property situate as aforesaid, whether belonging to the Company or not, and to collect rents and income, and to supply to tenants and occupiers and others refreshments, attendance, messengers, light, waiting-rooms, reading-rooms, meeting-rooms, and other conveniences:

(e.) To sell, manage, improve, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with the undertakings of or any part of the real or personal property and rights of the Company, with power to accept as consideration any shares, stocks, or obligations of any other company:

(f.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to benefit those who served in the Great War, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions, allowances, and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or just object:

(g.) To lend money, either with or without security, to such persons and upon such terms and conditions as the Company may think fit, and in particular to persons undertaking to build on or improve any property in which the Company is interested, and to tenants, builders, and contractors:

(h.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(i.) To make, enter into, deliver, accept, and receive all deeds, conveniences, leases, assurances, transfers, assignments, grants, and other documents and contracts necessary to carry out the purpose of the Company and to perform the objects and business of the said Company:

(j.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(k.) To remunerate by payment in cash or shares in the Company any person or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(l.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(m.) To enter into (partnership or otherwise) any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which this Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company; to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such company, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same:

(n.) To distribute any of the property of the Company in specie among the members:

(o.) To amalgamate with any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(p.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company:

(q.) To carry out any other business which may seem to this Company capable of being conveniently carried out in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to render profitable or enhance the value of the Company's property and rights:

(r.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects.

(g.) To enter into any arrangements with any Governments or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such Government or authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(h.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or useful object:

(i.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(j.) Generally to purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any real and personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and in particular any lands, buildings, easements, machinery, plant, and stock-in-trade:

(k.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(l.) To construct, improve, maintain, develop, manage, carry out, or control any manufactories, warehouses, cold-storage plants, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interests, and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying-out, or control thereof:

(m.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(n.) To lend money to such persons and on such terms as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such persons:

(o.) To borrow or raise or secure the payment of money in such manner as the Company shall think fit, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, charged upon all or any of the Company's property, both present and future, including its uncalled capital, and to purchase, redeem, or pay off any such securities:

(p.) To remunerate any persons or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(q.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, discount, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(r.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether in part similar to those of this Company:

(s.) To adopt such means of making known the products of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by publication of books and periodicals, and by granting prizes, rewards, and donations:

(t.) To obtain any provisional order or Act of Parliament for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(u.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized in any part of Canada and in any foreign country or place and elsewhere abroad:

(v.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, mortgage, enfranchise, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the property and rights of the Company:

(w.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and by or through trustees, agents, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others:

(x.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them:

(y.) And it is hereby declared that the word "company" in this clause shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether incorporated or not incorporated, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere; and the intention is that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except where otherwise expressed in such paragraph, be in nowise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or the name of the Company. 4518-au31

To promote golf-links and grounds at Vancouver or elsewhere, and to lay out, prepare, and maintain the same for golf and other purposes of the club, and to provide club-rooms, pavilions, lavatories, kitchens, refreshment-rooms, workshops, stables, sheds, and other conveniences in connection therewith, and to furnish and maintain the same, and to permit the same and the property of the Company to be used by members and other persons, either gratuitously or for payment:

(d.) To purchase, hire, make, or provide and maintain all kinds of horses, live stock, furniture, implements, tools, utensils, plate, glass, linen, books, papers, periodicals, stationery, cards, games, and other things required or which may be conveniently used in connection with the links and grounds, club-houses and other premises of the club by persons frequenting the same, whether members of the club or not:

(e.) To buy, prepare, make, supply, and deal in all kinds of golf clubs and balls and all apparatus used in connection with golf and other athletic sports, and all kinds of provisions and refreshments required or used by the members of the club or other persons frequenting the links, grounds, club-houses, or premises of the club, and to apply for and obtain all licences necessary therefor:

(f.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, or otherwise acquire any lands, buildings, easements, rights, or property, real or personal, which may be requisite for the purposes of or conveniently used in connection with any of the objects of the club, and to sell, manage, demise, mortgage, give in exchange, or dispose of the same:

(g.) To improve, develop, and turn to account any land or other heritable subjects acquired by the Company or in which it is interested, and in particular by laying out and preparing the same for golf or other sporting or recreation purposes or for building purposes by constructing, altering, pulling down, decorating, maintaining, fitting up, and improving buildings and conveniences, and by planting, paving, draining, cultivating, letting on building lease or building agreement, and by advancing money to and entering into contracts and arrangements of all kinds with builders, tenants, and others:

(h.) To construct, improve, maintain, work, manage, carry out, or control any roads, ways, and other works and conveniences which may to the Company seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the club's interests, and to contribute to or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying-out, or control thereof:

(i.) To hire and employ secretaries, clerks, managers, servants, and workmen, and to pay to them and to other persons in return for services rendered to the club salaries, wages, gratuities, and pensions:

(j.) To promote and to hold, either alone or jointly with any other association, club, or persons, golf meetings, competitions, and matches, and to offer, give, or contribute towards prizes, medals, and awards, and to promote, give, or support dinners, balls, concerts, and other entertainments:

(k.) To accumulate reserve or other funds, and to apply any such funds in such manner as may be conducive, directly or indirectly, to the benefit of the Company or its members:

(l.) To stipulate for and obtain for the members or any of them any property, rights, privileges, or options:

(m.) To raise money by entry-moneys, subscriptions, levies, or in such other way as the Company may think fit, and to grant any rights and privileges to members, subscribers, and others:

(n.) To grant, if and when sanctioned by the Company in general meeting, pensions or allowances to officers, servants, or employees of the Company:

(o.) To buy, sell, and deal in all kinds of apparatus and all kinds of provisions, liquid and solid, required by the persons frequenting the Company grounds and premises, and for these purposes to apply for and take all necessary steps to procure and obtain all necessary licences or privileges, and from time to time to apply for renewals or continuation thereof:

(p.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise), and to obtain from any such Government or authorities any rights, concessions, charters, and privileges which may be thought conducive to the Company's objects or any of them:

(q.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the undertaking, business, property, goodwill, assets, and liabilities of any company, corporation, society, partnership, or person carrying on or about to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which is in any respect similar to the objects of this Company, or which is capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, or possessed of property deemed suitable for the purposes of this Company; and to enter into partnership or into any arrangement with respect to the sharing of profits, union of interests, or amalgamation, reciprocal concession, or co-operation, either in whole or in part, with any such company, corporation, society, partnership, or person:

(r.) To allot, credited as fully paid or partly paid up, the shares or bonds, debentures, or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property acquired by the Company, or for services rendered or other valuable consideration:

(s.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire letters patent and similar privileges and concessions, both Canadian and foreign, for inventions or improvements in any invention which may be considered conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Company or in any way connected therewith, or any interest in any such invention or patent, and any licence or licences in connection therewith, and to finance inventors or alleged inventors for the purpose of enabling them to test or perfect their inventions, and to sell or dispose of any such patent rights or privileges, and to grant licences for the use of the same or otherwise deal with and turn to account such patents and privileges as may be deemed expedient in the interests of the Company:

(t.) To sell or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company shall think fit, and in particular for shares, debentures, or securities of any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company:

(u.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(v.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in any other country having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(w.) To draw, accept, and make, and to endorse, discount, and negotiate, bills of exchange and promissory notes, bills of lading, warrants, debentures, and other negotiable instruments:

(x.) To lend or advance money to such parties and on such terms and security as may seem expedient, and in particular to customers of and persons having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by such persons:

(y.) To borrow or raise money on any terms or conditions, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock (whether perpetual or otherwise), mortgages, bonds, or other securities, and to mortgage or pledge all or any part of the Company's property, including its uncalled capital, for the purpose of securing such debentures, debenture stock, mortgages, bonds, or other securities:

(z.) Generally to carry on any other business whatsoever which the Company may desire or may consider capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the business of the Company:

(aa.) To enter into any arrangement with any person or corporation or to appoint any person or corporation as its agent to carry out the above objects or any of them on such terms and conditions as may be deemed fit and advisable:

(bb.) To do all such other things as are incidental or may be thought conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, and so that the word "company" in this memorandum, when applied otherwise than to this Company, shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons, whether corporate or unincorporate, and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere; and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs hereto shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph) by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company, but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company.

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The objects for which the Company has been incorporated are:—

(a.) To manufacture lumber of all kinds from every suitable material and by every possible process, and to erect mills, storehouses, and all other buildings, and to construct, erect, and maintain every sort and kind of plant and machinery necessary for the purposes of or in any way connected with the manufacture of lumber, and to purchase, sell, dispose of, and generally deal in lumber of all kinds and all combinations and products thereof:

(b.) To carry on the business of timber merchants, sawmill-owners, loggers, lumbermen, and lumber merchants in any or all of their branches; to buy, sell, log, prepare for market, manufacture, manipulate, import, export, and deal in timber, sawlogs, lumber, and wood of all kinds, and to manufacture and deal in lumber, timber, shingles, lath, sash, doors, portable houses, boxes, and all articles and materials in the manufacture whereof timber, lumber or wood is used; and to carry on any other business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(c.) To carry on the business of merchants, carriers by land or water, ship owners, wharfingers, warehousemen, scow-owners, barge-owners, lightermen, and forwarding agents, and to buy, sell, repair, build, charter, hire, and operate steamers, tugs, barges, ships, and other vessels, and to employ the same in the conveyance of passengers, mails, merchandise, and freight of all kinds:

(d.) To avail itself of and have, hold, exercise, use, and enjoy all rights, powers, privileges, advantages, priorities, and immunities created, provided, and conferred by the "Water Act" and any amendment thereof, and any and all other laws pertaining to the appropriation and use of waters for any and all purposes whatsoever:

(e.) To acquire, operate, and carry on the business of a power company, and to apply water or water-power for producing any form of power, or for producing and generating electricity for the purposes of light, heat, and power, or any other purpose for which electricity may be applied; to apply, construct, and operate waterworks, and to distribute, sell, supply, or use water or water-power for mechanical, irrigation, domestic, or any other purposes for which water or other power may be supplied, sold, or used; to render water and water-power available for use, application, and distribution by acquiring, constructing, erecting, and operating any and all improvements of every sort whatsoever necessary for said purposes, including the diverting of the waters of any stream, pond, or lake into any other channel or channels:

(f.) To construct, equip, operate, and maintain electric, cable, or other tramways for the conveyance of passengers or freight:

(g.) To carry on the business of an electric light company in all its branches, and to do any and all things necessary to generate, distribute, and supply electricity to any person, firm, corporation, or municipality:

(h.) To obtain by purchase, lease, hire, discovery, location, or otherwise, and hold, mines, mineral claims, mineral leases, prospects, and mining lands, oil claims, prospects, and lands, and mining rights of every description, and to work, develop, operate, and sell or otherwise dispose of the same or any of them or any interest therein, and to carry on the business of a mining, smelting, milling, and refining and oil company in all or any of its branches:

(i.) To acquire by lease, purchase, or otherwise lands containing sands, gravel, granite, sandstone or limestone, or other building substances or materials, and to carry on the business of quarry-owners and wholesale and retail dealers in any and all kinds of building materials:

(j.) To establish, operate, and maintain stores, trading-posts, and to carry on a general mercantile business; to carry on the business of hotel and inn keepers:

(jj.) To construct, equip, operate, and maintain telegraph and telephone systems and lines:

(k.) To remove obstructions from any river, lake, creek, or stream, and to do all things necessary to make the same clear and fit for rafting and driving thereon logs, lumber, rafts, or crafts, and for such purposes to blast rocks, deepen channels, remove shoals or other impediments, or otherwise improve the navigability or floatability of any river, lake, creek, or stream:

(l.) To purchase, lease, take by licence, or otherwise acquire, sell, deal with, use, and dispose of any lands, timber licences, timber leases or limits, grants, mills, plants, concessions, leases, mill-sites, and any real or personal properties of every description, and to work, develop the resources of, and to turn to account the same in such manner as the Company may think fit:

(m.) To construct, build, acquire by purchase, lease, or otherwise maintain, improve, manage, operate, work, control, and superintend sawmills, shingle-mills, logging-railways, tramways, skidways, roads, wharves, bridges, docks, piers, booms, reservoirs, flumes, aqueducts, pipes, pipe-lines, and other works, apparatus, and conveniences which the Company may think, directly or indirectly, conducive to any of the objects herein expressed:

(n.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to use, grant licences or rights in respect of, or otherwise turn to account, patents, patent rights, licences, concessions, trade-marks, secret processes, British, Canadian, and foreign, as to any invention, improvements, or process which may be considered conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Company, or which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company:

(o.) Generally to purchase, take on lease, hire, or otherwise acquire, hold, maintain, and operate any real and personal property, wheresoever situated, and any rights and privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and to sell or otherwise dispose of and turn to account all or any part of the same:

(p.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, hospitals, stores, shops, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company, or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions or allowances, and to make payments toward insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money or make grants of lands to or for any charitable or benevolent objects or purposes, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or useful objects:

(q.) To construct, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company:

(r.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(s.) To acquire and carry on all or any part of the business or property and to undertake any liabilities of any person, firm, association, or company possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, or carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which can be conveniently carried on in connection with the same, or may seem to the Company calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, and to pay for any lands, business, property, rights, privileges, and concessions acquired or agreed to be acquired by the Company and generally to satisfy any payments by or obligations of the Company by the issue of shares of this Company or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up, or of debentures or other securities of this or any other company credited as fully or partly paid up:

(t.) To undertake and carry into effect all such financial, trading, or other operations or business in connection with the objects of the Company as the Company may think fit:

(u.) To subscribe for, take, acquire, hold, sell, and give guarantees by way of underwriting or otherwise in relation to stocks, shares, debentures, obligations, and securities of any company, or any supreme, municipal, public, or local board or authority:

(v.) To enter into partnership or any arrangement for sharing profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concessions, or otherwise with any person, persons, partnership, association, or corporation; to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any person, association, or corporation, and in particular any person, association, or corporation being customers of or having any dealings with the Company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares and securities of any such person, association, or corporation, and to sell, hold, reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with the same, and to consolidate with or amalgamate with any other company having objects similar to those of this Company:

(w.) To sell, lease, exchange, surrender, mortgage, or otherwise deal with the whole of the undertaking and property and rights of the Company or any part thereof for such consideration as the Company may think fit, and in particular for any shares (whether credited as partly or fully paid up or otherwise), debentures, or securities of any other company, and to divide such part or parts, as may be determined by the Company, of the purchase-moneys, whether in cash, shares, or other equivalent, which may at any time be received by the Company on a sale of or other dealing with the whole or part of the property, estate, and rights of the Company, amongst the members of the Company by way of dividend or bonus in proportion to their shares or to the amount paid up on their shares, or otherwise to deal with the same as the Company may determine:

(x.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(y.) To obtain any Act of Parliament or to apply to the executive authority for any order for enabling the Company to carry any of its objects into effect, or for effecting any modification of the Company's constitution, or for any other purpose which may seem expedient, and to oppose any proceedings or applications which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to prejudice the Company's interests:

(z.) To enter into any arrangement with any Government or authorities (supreme, municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's interest, and to obtain from any such Government or authority, or take over from other persons or companies possessed of the same, any rights, privileges, bonuses, or concessions which the Company may think desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(1a.) To do all acts and things which may be necessary or desirable in connection with or to procure for the Company legal recognition, domicile, and status in any colony, State, or territory in which any of its property, estate, effects, or rights may be situated or in which the Company may desire to carry on business, and to appoint local boards or committees, attorneys, or agents, with such powers as the directors of the Company may determine, to represent the Company in any such colony, State, or territory:

(1b.) To borrow or raise money for any purpose of the Company, and to secure the repayment of money and the interest thereon in such manner and on such terms as the directors may deem expedient, and in particular by mortgage and (or) by the issue of bonds, debentures, and debenture stock charged upon the whole or any part of the undertaking, property, and assets of the Company, present or after acquired, including its uncalled capital:

(1c.) To create, issue, make, sell, exchange, hypothecate, or otherwise deal with, draw, accept, endorse, discount, and negotiate perpetual or redeemable bonds, debentures or debenture stock, cheques, promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, or other negotiable or non-negotiable obligations:

(1d.) To distribute any of the assets of the Company among its members in specie:

(1e.) To pay out of the funds of the Company all expenses of or incidental to the formation, registration, and advertising of the Company, and to remunerate any person or company for service rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any shares in the Company's capital or guaranteeing any debenture or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation or promotion of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(1f.) To do all such other things as are incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them, so that the objects specified in each paragraph of this clause shall, except when otherwise explained in such paragraph, be in no-wise restricted or limited by reference to or inference from the terms of any other paragraph or in the name of the Company.

"MOVING PICTURES ACT."

PURSUANT to the provisions of the "Moving Pictures Act," being chapter 75 of the "Statutes of British Columbia for 1914" and amending Acts, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has by Order in Council approved on the 7th day of July, 1922, been pleased to revoke the Regulations made and passed on the 26th day of October, 1916, under the said Act, such revocation to take effect on and from the 1st day of August, 1922, and to make Regulations as follows, to be in force on and from the said 1st day of August, 1922:—

INTERPRETATION.

The interpretation of the terms "Censor," "film exchange," "films," "kinematograph," "moving-picture theatre," and "slides" contained in the interpretation section of the "Moving Pictures Act" shall extend to these Regulations.

Every licensee of a moving-picture theatre, film exchange, or kinematograph, and every employee or agent of such licensee shall observe the following Regulations:—

PROJECTION-ROOM.

Section 1. The room or cabinet in which any kinematograph is used under the provisions of a moving-picture theatre licence shall hereafter in these Regulations be called the projection-room, and shall be not less than 8 feet in height; the floor space to vary according to the number of machines installed therein, as follows:—

One kinematograph, not less than 7 feet long by 9 feet deep.

For each additional kinematograph, stereopticon, or spot-lamp add not less than 3 feet to the length.

The depth of the room to be measured along an imaginary line drawn from the front wall to the rear wall through the kinematograph.

Section 2. Every projection-room installed in the premises licensed as a moving-picture theatre shall be constructed in accordance with the following requirements:—

WALLS.

(1.) The enclosing walls shall be of brick, burnt-clay tile, or concrete. If of brick, the walls shall be 8 inches in thickness, laid with cement mortar, one row headers for every six rows of stretchers, and plastered inside and out with cement plaster.

If of burnt-clay tile, the wall shall be at least 6 inches thick, laid with cement mortar, and plastered inside and out with cement plaster.

If of concrete, the walls shall be at least 6 inches thick, made of cement, sand, and gravel mixed in the following ratio: Two of cement, four of sand, and six of gravel or crushed rock that will pass through a 1-inch mesh, and reinforced with galvanized reinforcement not less than 3-mesh 10-gauge reinforcement, or $\frac{1}{4}$ -inch steel rods set on 9-inch centres.

CEILINGS.

(2.) The ceilings of these rooms shall be either of reinforced concrete, mixed as above, at least 2 inches in thickness and thoroughly reinforced throughout, or of 3-inch burnt-clay tiles and tee-irons. Said tee-irons to be of sufficient strength to hold burnt-clay tiles securely in place. Tiles to be laid with cement mortar and entire ceiling to be plastered with cement plaster.

DOORWAYS.

(3.) The doorway shall be not less than 2 feet by 6 feet 6 inches. The door frame shall be securely built into the wall and shall be either a 2-inch by 2-inch metal angle or an asbestos-lined metal-covered frame having a 2-inch stop on the top, bottom, and both sides. The door shall be a standard 3-ply metal-covered door not less than $1\frac{1}{2}$ inches in thickness, or the equivalent of said door. This door shall be hung so as to open outwards and to be positively self-closing in action.

VENTILATION.

(4.) Leading directly to the open air through the ceiling of the room shall be a ventilation flue or ventilation flues made of not less than 20 B. & S. gauge sheet-metal, securely riveted together and fastened to a flange or thimble imbedded in the ceiling and clearing all combustible material by at least 6 inches. The flue opening for one machine shall be not less than 120 square inches in area, and shall maintain the same area throughout its length. For each additional machine there shall be added an additional 120 square inches of ventilation area.

In addition there shall be at least one fresh-air intake at or near the floor-line which will continually supply fresh air to the room. This intake shall be not less than 120 square inches in area and shall lead directly to the open air.

PORT-HOLES.

(5.) For each machine used there shall be not more than two port-holes, one for observation of the screen the other for the projection of the picture from film or slide. The observation opening shall be not less than 140 square inches in area, or an oval of 13 inches by 11 inches, and not greater than 170 square inches in area, or an oval of 15 inches by 12 inches.

The projection opening shall be not greater than 112 square inches in area or a rectangle of 7 inches by 16 inches.

All such openings shall be provided with gravity doors constructed of sheet-metal of not less than 10 B. & S. gauge. When closed the gravity doors shall have an overlap of not less than 2 inches on all sides, and shall be arranged to slide freely without binding in properly constructed grooves or channels of the same weight of metal.

The gravity doors shall be controlled by a fusible link melting at 160° Fahr., fastened as nearly above the aperture as possible. In all cases the tripping arrangement must be made so as to be easily controlled manually. The projectionists in charge shall release and close all such ports once each working-day, and all such doors shall be continuously maintained in first-class working order.

SHELVES.

(6.) All shelves, fittings, and fixtures shall be either of non-combustible material or metal-covered throughout.

PORTABLE PROJECTION-ROOMS.

Section 3. No portable projection-room shall be used in any moving-picture theatre in which there is a permanent projection-room, or in any moving-picture theatre where moving pictures are regularly displayed to the public.

All portable cabinets or rooms must be approved by the Censor before being used, and shall be constructed to the following requirements:—

Size.—They shall be not less than 6 feet wide by 7 feet long and 7 feet 6 inches high; for portable machines shall be not less than 4 feet wide by 3 feet 6 inches deep by 7 feet high.

Construction.—The frames on which these rooms or cabinets are made shall be as follows:—

(1.) A frame of $1\frac{1}{2}$ -inch angle- and tee-irons mitred and securely fastened together, covered with asbestos lumber.

(2.) A frame of $1\frac{1}{2}$ -inch angle- and tee-irons mitred and securely fastened together, covered with 20 gauge sheet-metal.

(3.) A fitted frame of $\frac{3}{4}$ -inch galvanized-iron pipes and fittings and covered with $\frac{1}{4}$ -inch asbestos cloth.

In the cases of types 1 and 2, the asbestos lumber and sheet-metal shall be securely fastened to the frame-irons with $\frac{1}{4}$ -inch stove-bolts and washers, spaced not more than 9 inches apart. In the case of type 3, the asbestos cloth used as a covering for the cabinet shall have an overlap of at least 3 feet on one side, forming the entrance to said room or cabinet. The ceiling covering shall overlap at least 8 inches all around and be securely fastened in place. The floor covering shall be of two ply of the asbestos cloth and extend at least 1 foot all around clear of the frame.

There shall be a ventilation flue of at least 8 inches in diameter, made of 24-gauge sheet-metal, leading directly to the open air.

The ports, port coverings, fittings, and fixtures of these portable rooms or cabinets shall, as far as possible, correspond to those of the standard room.

KINEMATOGRAPHS.

Section 4. (1.) All kinematographs, kinematograph lamp-houses, stereopticons, machine-heads, spot-lamps, and other similar apparatus shall be in themselves and all their accessory parts of a type and style passed by the National Board of Fire Underwriters and approved by the Censor.

(2.) All kinematograph lamp-houses, stereopticon lamp-houses, and spot-lamps shall be connected by at least a 4 inch sheet-metal stack or pipe leading to the vent flue of the projection-room.

(3.) When two or more kinematographs are installed and where only one projectionist is on shift at a time, dual control switches shall be installed on the machines, and a master control switch on the arc feed circuit.

ELECTRICAL EQUIPMENT.

Section 5. (1.) All electrical apparatus, as rheostats, motor generators, rectifiers, transformers, etc., shall be enclosed in a separate fire-proof room. All fuses must be of the enclosed type and located in this room. All switches used in the projection-room shall be of the dead-front type or enclosed in externally operated metal cabinets, or a metal cabinet from which only the handle of the switch protrudes. No live metal parts shall be allowed in the projection-room.

(2.) Arc lamps used in moving-picture theatres shall be controlled by double-pole single throw-knife switches within easy reach of the projectionist standing in observation position.

(3.) Conductors carrying current to arc-lamps shall be not less than No. 4 wire gauge. Stranded asbestos-covered conductors provided with approved lugs shall be used between the arc-lamp and switch.

(4.) All electrical wiring in the projection-room shall be enclosed in metal conduit, and all fittings shall be of approved type.

(5.) Not more than one incandescent light for each kinematograph installed, and one such light for the rewind apparatus, shall be permitted in the projection room. All such lights shall be protected by wire guards, and reinforced cord shall be used for pendant purposes.

FILM REWINDS AND CONTAINERS.

Section 6. (1.) All film rewinds shall be of the enclosed type, that is, both reels to be enclosed in metal cabinets or cabinets with not more than 8 inches of film exposed.

(2.) A film container made of sheet-metal of not less than 20 gauge, equipped with positive self-closing doors, shall be installed in the projection-room, such film container to be substantially built without the use of solder or any fusible substance. Joints to be of the double-lock type and securely riveted. All films, except those in the machines or in the process of rewinding, shall be kept in said container.

(3.) Not more than the film necessary for the show in progress shall be kept or stored in the projection-room while audience or spectators are in the theatre.

(4.) No material of a combustible nature shall be kept or stored in any projection-room.

FIRE EXTINGUISHERS.

Section 7 (1.) Two or more liquid chemical fire extinguishers, of a size, nature, or type approved by the Censor, shall be continuously maintained in good working order in the projection-room.

(2.) A large bucket of sand and a pail of water shall be kept in every projection-room within easy reach of the projectionist.

SANITARY ARRANGEMENTS.

Section 8. Running water and a basin or sink shall be installed in every projection-room.

PORTABLE & MINIATURE KINEMATOGRAPHS.

Section 9. The preceding clauses of these Regulations shall not apply to portable or special miniature kinematographs of similar apparatus so designed as not to be adaptable to the use of standard films as used in standard machines, but which take only films which are slow-burning or non-inflammable, of special width and perforation.

THEATRE CONSTRUCTION.

Section 10. Plans and specifications for all new moving-picture theatre buildings, and for all changes in existing moving-picture theatre buildings, shall, prior to the commencement of work on said buildings, be filed with and receive the approval of the Censor of Moving Pictures.

(1.) Location. Every moving-picture theatre shall have at least one front on a public street or highway (lanes not to be classed as public streets or highways), and in such front of every moving-picture theatre there shall be suitable means of entrance and exit for audience or spectators.

No moving-picture theatre shall be located above the ground-floor of any building.

(2.) Exits. From the auditorium of every premises licensed as a moving-picture theatre, in addition to the aforementioned entrance and exit, there shall be at least two emergency exits opening to a street or lane. These exits shall be situated at or near the rear of the auditorium, one on either side of the building, and shall be of a double-door type not less than 3 feet 6 inches wide, opening outward, and equipped with standard panic or exit bolts. No other bolt or fastening shall be used on said exit doors.

At all times when premises are open for the admission of the public each exit of every premises licensed as a moving-picture theatre shall be marked with an illuminated sign clearly portraying through red-coloured glass the word "Exit"; the letters forming such word to be not less than 6 inches in height. No other red illuminating lights or signs shall be used in any moving-picture theatre.

(3.) Aisles. All aisles extending in direction from the front to the rear of every moving-picture theatre shall be not less than 4 feet in width throughout their length.

All cross aisles extending from the main aisles to the exits shall be not less than 3 feet 9 inches in width throughout their length.

(4.) Seats. All seats on the main-floor of any moving-picture theatre shall be not less than 32 inches back to back, measured in a horizontal direction, and all seats in all balconies or galleries shall be not less than 30 inches back to back, measured in a horizontal direction. All such chairs shall be securely fastened to the floor.

There shall be not more than seven chairs between any one seat and an aisle.

Where common chairs are used for the seating in a moving-picture theatre, such chairs shall be battened together in a secure manner and securely fastened to the floor.

(5.) Halls, Passage-ways. All aisles, halls, passage-ways, and lobbies shall at all times be kept free from any obstructions. No person or persons shall be allowed to stand or loiter in any such aisles, halls, passage-ways, etc.

ELECTRIC WIRING.

Section 11. (1.) All electric wiring and apparatus used in connection with any moving-picture theatre shall be installed in full compliance with the rules of the National Electrical Code.

(2.) For each 100 square feet of floor area or fraction thereof in the auditorium of any moving-picture theatre (this area to include all balconies, galleries, boxes, and loges), there shall be white light of not less than one-candle power. Such white light to be evenly distributed over the auditorium, and kept lit during any and all performances to which the public is admitted.

(3.) The auditorium lights of every premises licensed as a moving-picture theatre shall be operated on an emergency lighting circuit, said circuit to be controlled by means of switches placed in the lobby of said theatre and also in the projection-room of said theatre. Such switches to be placed so as to be in easy reach at all times of authorized attendants of such theatres.

(4.) The current for said emergency lighting circuit or circuits shall be fed by a separate service, or from a point directly after the main service fuses.

In addition to serving all the auditorium lights, said emergency circuit or circuits shall serve all exit lights, all lights in halls, passage-ways, stairways, approaches, lobbies, and all other portions of every moving-picture theatre where lights are normally kept lighted during the performance.

SANITARY ARRANGEMENTS.

Section 12. The sanitary arrangements for both sexes shall be installed in full compliance with the Provincial Health Department Regulations. This also applies to the projection-room of said theatre.

FIRE-FIGHTING APPARATUS.

Section 13. There shall be in every moving-picture theatre located where there is a water supply at least one 2½-inch stand-pipe equipped with hose connection, valves, and hose, situated in such a position as to be easy of access to the authorized attendants of the theatre. In addition, there shall be located at different points throughout the theatre liquid chemical fire-extinguishers of a type, nature, and number approved and required by the Censor. Where no water supply is available for fire-fighting purposes, an extra number of fire-extinguishers shall be deemed necessary.

STAGES.

Section 14. In all moving-picture theatres where stages and stage equipment is installed, said stages and equipment shall come under the jurisdiction of the Censor of Moving Pictures. The electrical and mechanical equipment in connection therewith shall be installed in full compliance with the National Electrical Code.

CERTIFICATE OF APPROVAL.

Section 18. Dealers selling any type or form of projection machine, using either standard film or non-flam film (slow burning) of special width and perforation, shall secure a certificate of approval from the Censor of Moving Pictures, for which approval said dealer shall pay the annual fee of $100.

Section 19. (1.) The Censor shall have power to approve any moving-picture film from which all parts objectionable to him have been removed. If the Censor approves any film with modifications or excisions, the said modifications or excisions shall be made by the Censor, and the portions of film removed shall remain in possession of the Censor so long as the film shall remain in British Columbia, and shall only be returned to the person who submitted said modified films when the approval stamp of the Censor has been removed from the film which was modified, and upon the removal of the approval stamp of the Censor from said film the film shall not again be exhibited to the public in British Columbia unless said film is subsequently submitted to the Censor and again approved by him.

(2.) If any person submitting any film to the Censor objects to the modifications of the film he shall serve the Censor with a notice in writing to that effect, and if any part of such film does not meet with the approval of the Censor such film shall not be modified or approved by him.

Section 20. All films and slides shall be inspected by the Censor at the demonstration office maintained by the Government for the inspection thereof, and all such films and slides shall be taken to such office and removed from such office by the person submitting the same for inspection. While such films or slides are at the office or demonstration room of the Government they are at the risk of the person submitting them for inspection, such risk covering damage or loss by fire, or damage or loss from any other cause.

Section 21. All films, whether black and white or any other variety, which for any reason it is impossible for the Censor to inspect at the Government demonstration office, shall be inspected at the convenience of the Censor at such place in the City of Vancouver, British Columbia, as shall be provided at the direction of the Censor by the person submitting such film for inspection. All costs incidental to such inspection shall be borne by the person submitting such films.

Section 22. No moving-picture film which carries anywhere in its length any section of film which is designed to project on the screen a statement that such film has been inspected or approved by any Board of Censors outside the Province of British Columbia shall be exhibited to the public in British Columbia.

Section 23. No exhibition of any film which has been approved by the Censor and is unaltered since such approval, and which bears a stamp signifying such approval, or is accompanied by a certificate of such approval, shall be prohibited by any police officer, constable, or any other person, on account of anything contained in such film.

Section 24. Every film exchange shall, on demand of the Censor and for the purpose of carrying out the provisions of the "Moving Pictures Act," furnish the Censor with the names and addresses of all persons, companies, or associations in British Columbia to whom films or slides have been rented, leased, sold, or supplied by such film exchange.

Section 25. Every person, firm, or corporation being the holder of a licence for a film exchange under clauses (1) or (2), or for a moving-picture theatre under clauses (1) or (5), of section 15 of these Regulations, who submits to the Censor for examination or approval any film not owned, leased, or rented by such person, firm, or corporation, with the intent to secure the examination or approval of such film at a lower fee than would be chargeable if the said film were so submitted by the person, firm, or corporation owning or having control or use of such film, shall be guilty of an offence against these Regulations, and such licence may be suspended or cancelled by the Censor.

PROJECTIONISTS.

Section 26. The term "operator" and "apprentice operator" being now obsolete, the terms "projectionist" and "apprentice projectionist" replace them in these Regulations.

Section 27. For the purposes of the Board of Examiners of applicants for licences as projectionists or apprentice projectionists the Province shall be divided into four districts of different grades, the grading of such districts to be made by the Chairman of the Board of Examiners.

Section 28. As the hazard increases with the equipment and the seating capacity of the theatres the classifications for projectionists' licences are as follows:—

(1.) Moving-picture theatres, seating 500 or more persons, using any form of direct or rectified current at the arc of the projection machine, shall employ only projectionists who hold first-class licences.

(2.) Moving-picture theatres, seating 500 or more persons, using alternating current only at the arc of the projection machine, shall employ one projectionist holding a first-class licence; if two projectionists are employed, a projectionist holding a second-class licence may be employed as second man.

(3.) Moving-picture theatres seating between 350 and 500 persons, running continuously afternoon and evening, using any form of direct or rectified current at the arc of the projection machine, may employ one projectionist holding a first-class licence and one projectionist holding a second-class licence; if running not more than 36 hours per week, a projectionist holding a first-class licence shall be employed.

(4.) Moving-picture theatres seating between 350 and 500 persons, using only alternating current at the arc of the projection machine, may employ projectionists holding second-class licences.

(5.) Moving-picture theatres seating less than 350 persons, and using any form of direct or rectified current at the arc of the projection machine, may employ projectionists holding second-class licences.

(6.) Moving-picture theatres seating less than 300 and more than 200, using only alternating current at the arc of projection machine, may employ projectionists holding third-class licences.

(7.) Moving-picture theatres seating less than 200 persons, and using only alternating current as current for projection, may employ projectionists holding fourth-class licences.

(8.) Kinematograph licence-holders using direct current for projection purposes may employ projectionists holding third-class licences.

(9.) Kinematograph licence holders using alternating current for projection purposes may employ projectionists holding fourth-class licences.

(10.) Portable projectors, equipped with nitrogen lamps up to and including 1,200 watts, shall be in charge of a projectionist holding a third-class licence.

(11.) No moving-picture theatre situated in No. 1 Fire District in the Cities of Vancouver and Victoria shall employ projectionist or projectionists having less than a first-class licence.

Section 29. Licences issued to projectionists shall be valid only in the grade for which they are issued, save and except that they shall be valid in districts of inferior grade.

Section 30. Any projectionist applying for a licence of a superior grade to the one he holds shall accompany his application with a fee of $5. In the event of the candidate succeeding at the examination, the fee paid shall be applied in payment of licence. Such licence to be operative only until the 31st day of December in the year in which the application for examination is made.

Section 31. (1.) The Censor may issue a temporary licence to any projectionist or apprentice projectionist for a period not greater than 60 days in any case where it is found impossible by the Board of Examiners to immediately examine the applicant for licence, and such temporary licence shall be valid only until such time as the holder thereof is ordered by the Chairman of the Board of Examiners to appear for examination. Temporary permits shall not be issued where the services of a licensed projectionist is obtainable.

(2.) Applicants for temporary licences as projectionists or apprentice projectionists shall pay for temporary licences fees in amount equal to the fees hereinafter prescribed for permanent licences, and no additional fee shall be charged the holder of a temporary licence when he appears before the Board of Examiners for examination.

Section 32. The Board of Examiners shall consist of three persons, and where convenient examinations shall be conducted by the full Board; but it shall be competent for one or two members of the Board to act as examiner or examiners and to conduct examinations when authorized to do so by the Chairman of the Board. Applicants for first- and second-class licences must be examined by the full Board.

Section 33. In cases where an applicant for licence as a projectionist fails to pass the examination for licence as such, the Board of Examiners, or the Examiner, may at discretion issue to the said applicant a licence as an apprentice projectionist.

Section 34. Holders of licences as projectionists or apprentice projectionists may be called by the Board of Examiners to appear at any time for an examination additional to the one given when licence was first issued. Where such projectionist or apprentice projectionist fails to pass, the first licence shall be cancelled. Where such re-examination is ordered by the Board no fee shall be charged the licensee so re-examined.

Section 35. Applicants for licences as projectionists shall make application for examination as to competency to the Board of Examiners on a form supplied by the Board, and shall forward said form to the Board, accompanied by the fee hereinafter prescribed. In the event of the candidate succeeding at the examination the fee paid shall be applied as part payment for licence; and in the event of the candidate failing to pass the examination the fee shall be forfeited.

Section 36. Applicants for licences as apprentice projectionists shall make application therefor on a form to be supplied by the Board, and shall forward the said form to the Chairman of the Board, accompanied by the fee hereinafter prescribed.

Section 37. Holders of licences as apprentice projectionists shall serve a term of at least six months before applying for examination for licence as projectionist.

Section 38. No person shall, while under the influence of intoxicating liquor, operate or attempt to operate a kinematograph situated within any moving-picture theatre, nor shall any person in charge of any moving-picture theatre permit any person under the influence of intoxicating liquor to operate or attempt to operate any cinematograph situated within said theatre.

Section 39. The Censor of moving-pictures may, in his discretion, cancel or suspend any licence granted for the operation of moving-picture apparatus and its connections. Following are some of the causes warranting cancellation or suspension of such licences:—

Failure to display projectionists' licence for the operation of moving-picture apparatus and its connections:

Making false statements in application for licences:

Operating a cinematograph of a type or style not approved by the Censor of Moving Pictures:

Maintaining a dirty projection-room:

Latching the door of the projection-room on the inside, removing the handle from the outside of the door, or otherwise taking action such as might delay the access of authorized persons to the projection-room:

Failure to report promptly to the Censor in writing the occurrence of any fire in the projection-room of the holder of the licence, said reports to state fully the apparent cause or causes of said fire:

Permitting unlicensed manager or employee of a moving-picture theatre, or any other unlicensed person, to operate cinematograph in a moving-picture theatre projection-room while audience or spectators are in said theatre:

Permitting doors of film magazines to remain open or unlatched while said cinematograph is in use:

Propping up or suspending any fire-shutter on any cinematograph:

Removing any film-guard from any cinematograph, or in any way holding any film-guard from normal position while said machine is in use:

Being absent from observation position at cinematograph while said machine is being driven by motor, save and except where control switches on arc- and motor-drive circuits are installed to the approval of the Censor given in writing:

Smoking or permitting smoking or use of matches in the projection-room at any time:

Permitting any fire or open light in the projection-room while audience or spectators are in the theatre:

Allowing the door of the projection-room to be open while pictures are being projected:

Reading while projecting pictures:

Permitting any person other than the manager of the moving-picture theatre in which the projectionist is employed, or the licensed projectionists or apprentice projectionists employed by the said manager, or an authorized official, to be in the projection-room while audience or spectators are in the moving-picture theatre:

Having in the projection-room a greater number of reels of film than is necessary for the show or exhibition at any time being given:

Having any film exposed in the projection-room other than the one film in process of transfer to and from the cinematograph, or from the upper or lower magazine to the rewind:

Operating over fused or improperly connected electrical equipment:

Permitting licence to be in the possession of an unlicensed person:

Failure to test apparatus or connections prior to each performance or exhibition:

Operating a defective cinematograph:

Permitting set- or retaining-screw of crank of driving spindle of cinematograph to become loose in such a manner that said crank would become detached from said spindle while cinematograph is being operated manually.

FEEs FOR EXAMINATION AND LICENCE.

Section 41. The fees payable under the "Moving Pictures Act" for examination of applicants for licence, and for licences to projectionists and apprentice projectionists, shall be as follows:—

Examination fee	$ 5 00
Licence to projectionist	10 00
Licence to apprentice projectionist.....	5 00

FEEs NOT OTHERWISE SPECIFIED.

Section 42. The fee for any licence not hereinbefore specified shall be determined by the Censor of Moving Pictures.

TRANSFERS.

Section 43. Any licence issued under the provisions of clauses (1), (2), (3), (4), and (6) of section 15 and under section 16 may, with the consent of the Censor, be transferred from one holder to another, and any licence issued under the provisions of clauses (1), (2), (3), (4), and (6) of section 15 may be transferred from one premises to another upon payment to him of a fee equal to 20 per centum of the fee paid: Provided that in no case shall the fee be less than $5. Transfer as to premises only, on licences issued under the provisions of section 16, may be made without any additional fee.

Licences not mentioned in above are non-transferable.

FEE TO ACCOMPANY APPLICATION.

Section 44. All applications for licences or transfers of licences shall be accompanied by the fee for said licence or transfer, in cash, money order, or marked cheque, payable to the order of the Censor of Moving Pictures.

CANCELLATION FEE.

Section 45. Every licence for the operation of a moving-picture theatre, film exchange, or kinematograph issued under these Regulations shall be issued only for the premises specified in the application and endorsed on the licence, and subject to the implied condition that the premises in which it is proposed to operate such moving-picture theatre, film exchange, or kinematograph shall be approved for use as such by the Council, or by an official appointed in that behalf by the Council of the Municipality in which the licensee proposes to operate under such licence, and all transfers of such licence shall be subject to like condition.

In the event of the refusal by such Council or official to approve any such premises, the Censor may recommend to the Minister of Finance the repayment to the licensee of the licence fee paid; provided that the licence shall be surrendered to the Censor, accompanied by a cancellation fee of $5, and such licence shall be cancelled by the Censor before any such recommendation for repayment may be made.

Section 46. No holder of a kinematograph licence shall operate any kinematograph in any premises other than the premises endorsed on the licence, and such licence shall be issued for use only where the premises to be used in the exhibition of moving pictures thereunder are situated at least three miles from any premises licensed as a moving-picture theatre. No holder of any such licence shall show or exhibit moving pictures in any one of the premises endorsed on the licence for a greater length of time than the number of days in any calendar week endorsed on the licence, and every such licence shall be issued subject to the implied condition that no exhibition of films or slides shall be permitted thereunder on the Lord's Day, commonly called Sunday.

The Censor may, at his discretion, upon payment of a fee of $5, grant a substitution of or increase in the number of premises to be used in the operation of a kinematograph under any kinematograph licence.

Attorney-General's Department,

Victoria, B.C., July 7th, 1922.

"GAME ACT."

PURSUANT to the provisions of this Act, the Lieutenant-Governor in Council has been pleased to make regulations as follows:—

GAME REGULATIONS, 1922.

1. The prohibitions declared by section 9 of the "Game Act," being chapter 33 of the Statutes of 1914, as to the hunting, trapping, taking, wounding, and killing of game, are, subject to the provisions of section 2 of these regulations, hereby removed to the extent and within the periods and limits and subject to the provisions hereinafter set out respectively, as follows:—

[L.S.]

H. G. GARRETT,

Registrar of Joint-stock Companies.

The objects for which this Company has been established and registered under the above Act are:—

(a.) To carry on business generally as printers, lithographers, process printers, publishers, metal- and tin-plate and steel- and copper-plate printers, map makers, manufacturers of wall-paper and playing-cards, photographers, engravers, stereotypers, electrotypers, embossers, engrossers, book-publishers, bookbinders, paper-makers, envelope and paper bag and box makers, stationers, manufacturers, advertising agents, manufacturers of and dealers in and vendors of novelties, calendars, office supplies, printing and lithographic inks, and all kinds of paper products, and of any other articles or things of a character similar or analogous to the foregoing or any of them or connected therewith:

(b.) To purchase, acquire, and take over as going concerns the goodwill, business, and assets generally of Rolph and Clark, Limited, and Stone, Limited, both of which said companies have head offices at the City of Toronto, and to assume the liabilities of the said companies or either of them, and to carry on the business of the said respective companies in all their branches, and to extend the same, and to pay for same by the issue and allotment of fully paid-up and non-assessable shares in the capital stock of the Company for which incorporation is hereby sought:

(c.) To buy, sell, manufacture, trade, work, and deal in plant, machinery, tools, furniture, supplies, appliances, and all articles requisite in, used, or connected with or which can or may be used in connection with the said assets and businesses or any of them:

(d.) To take, acquire, lease, hold, sell, and dispose of real estate and personal property of every nature and kind as security for or in satisfaction, wholly or in part, of debts, liabilities, or obligations incurred or to be incurred in respect of or in connection with the business aforesaid or any of the purposes or objects of the Company:

(e.) To manufacture heat, light, and power, and to dispose of any surplus heat, light, and power not requisite for the purposes of the Company:

(f.) To carry on any other business, whether manufacturing or otherwise, which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with its business, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value of or render profitable any of the Company's property or rights:

(g.) To acquire or undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, goodwill, and liabilities of any person, firm, or company carrying on any portion of the business which the Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purpose of the Company, and to pay for the same in cash, bonds, or paid-up shares or partly in cash and partly in bonds or paid-up shares of the Company as may be agreed upon:

(h.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire any copyrights, patents, licences, concessions, and the like, conferring any exclusive or non-exclusive or limited right to use or any secret or other information as to any invention which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit the Company; and to use, exercise, develop, or grant licences in respect of or otherwise turn to account the property, rights, or information so acquired:

(i.) To enter into partnership or into any arrangement for sharing of profits, union of interests, co-operation, joint adventure, reciprocal concession, or otherwise with any person, firm, or company carrying on or engaged in, or about to carry on or engage in, any business or transaction which the Company is authorized to carry on or engage in, or any business or transaction capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit the Company; and to lend money to, guarantee the contracts of, or otherwise assist any such person, firm, or company, and to take or otherwise acquire shares, bonds, and securities of any such company, and to sell, pledge, hold, issue, or reissue, with or without guarantee, or otherwise deal with or dispose of the same; and to act as agents for any person, partnership, or company carrying on a similar business:

(j.) To consolidate or amalgamate with any other company having objects similar in whole or in part to those of the Company:

(k.) To accept in payment of any debt or debts due or owing to the Company the stock, shares, bonds, debentures of any other company or companies, and notwithstanding the provisions of section 44 of the "Companies Act," to use any of the shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities or funds of the Company to purchase or otherwise acquire and to take, hold, transfer, or sell the shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of or in any other company or corporation, and to guarantee the payment of the principal of and interest on the bonds, debentures, or dividends upon the shares of any other company or corporation, and while holding such shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of any other company or corporation to exercise all the rights and powers of ownership thereof, including the right to vote thereon through such agent or agents as the directors may appoint, and to distribute such shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities or any assets of such other company in specie, upon a division of profits or distribution of capital, among the shareholders:

(l.) To enter into any arrangements with any authorities (municipal, local, or otherwise) that may seem conducive to the Company's objects or any of them, and to obtain from any such authority any rights, privileges, and concessions which the Company may think it desirable to obtain, and to carry out, exercise, and comply with any such arrangements, rights, privileges, and concessions:

(m.) To establish and support or aid in the establishment and support of associations, institutions, funds, trusts, and conveniences calculated to benefit employees or ex-employees of the Company (or its predecessors in business), or the dependents or connections of such persons, and to grant pensions and allowances, and to make payments towards insurance, and to subscribe or guarantee money for charitable or benevolent objects, or for any exhibition, or for any public, general, or useful object:

(n.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the property and liabilities of the Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit the Company:

(o.) To purchase, take on lease or in exchange, hire, or otherwise acquire any personal property and any rights or privileges which the Company may think necessary or convenient for the purposes of its business, and in particular any machinery, plant, stock-in-trade:

(p.) To construct, improve, maintain, work, manage, carry out, or control any roads, ways, branches or sidings, bridges, reservoirs, water-courses, wharves, manufactories, warehouses, electric works, shops, stores, and other works and conveniences which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to advance the Company's interests; and to contribute to, subsidize, or otherwise assist or take part in the construction, improvement, maintenance, working, management, carrying-out, or control thereof:

(q.) To lend money to customers and others having dealings with the Company, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such persons:

(r.) To draw, make, accept, endorse, execute, and issue promissory notes, bills of exchange, bills of lading, warrants, and other negotiable or transferable instruments:

(s.) To procure the Company to be registered and recognized in any foreign country, and to designate persons therein according to the laws of such foreign country to represent this Company and to accept service for and on behalf of the Company of any process or suit:

(t.) To adopt such means of making known the products of the Company as may seem expedient, and in particular by advertising in the press, by circulars or catalogues, by purchase and exhibition of works of art or interest, by publication of books and periodicals, and by granting prizes, rewards, and donations:

(u.) To raise and assist in raising money for and to aid by way of bonus, loan, promise, endorsements, guarantee, or otherwise any corporation in the capital stock of which the Company holds shares or whose bonds or debentures or obligations are held by the Company or with which it may have business relations, and to do any act or thing for the preservation, protection, improvement, or enhancement of the value of any such shares, bonds, debentures, or other obligations, and to act as employee, agent, or manager of any such corporation, and to guarantee the performance of contracts by any such corporation or by any person or persons with whom the Company may have business relations:

(v.) To sell, lease, transfer, or dispose of the undertaking of the Company or any part thereof to such person, firm, or company and for such consideration as may be determined by a vote of two-thirds in value of the shareholders present in person or by proxy at a meeting duly called for the purpose of considering the same, and in particular either for cash or for shares, bonds, debentures, or securities of any other company (whether promoted by this Company or not) having objects altogether or in part similar to those of the Company, or partly for cash or partly for such shares, bonds, debentures, or securities:

(w.) lease, purchase, construct, own, maintain, and alter any buildings or works necessary or convenient for the purposes of the Company, and to take options on lands and buildings belonging to others, and to exercise such options or not as may be deemed expedient:

(x.) To sell, improve, manage, develop, exchange, lease, dispose of, turn to account, or otherwise deal with all or any part of the real and personal property, rights, patents, privileges, licences, concessions, and franchises of the Company, and to give options thereon or any part thereof, subject, however, in the case of patents and licences and of any matter relating thereto, to the approval of a two-thirds vote of the directors of the Company:

(y.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required in such manner as a majority in fact of the directors may from time to time determine; to subscribe for, acquire, and hold, either as principal or agent, and absolutely as owner or by way of collateral security, and to exchange or otherwise dispose of the shares of the capital stock, bonds, or debentures of any company or corporation with which this Company has or is about to have business relations, notwithstanding section 44 of the Act:

(z.) To distribute among the shareholders of the Company in kind any property of the Company, and in particular any shares, debentures, or securities of any other company or belonging to this Company, or which this Company may have the power to dispose of, and to do all acts and exercise all power to carry on any business incidental to the proper fulfilling of the objects for which this Company is incorporated:

(aa.) To employ brokers, commission agents, and underwriters upon any issue of shares, bonds, debentures, or other securities of the Company, and to provide for the remuneration of such persons or any other persons rendering services of any kind to the Company:

(bb.) To remunerate any person, firm, or company for services rendered or to be rendered in placing or assisting to place, or guaranteeing the placing of, any of the shares in the Company's capital or any bonds or other securities of the Company, or in or about the formation, promotion, organization, or incorporation of the Company or the conduct of its business:

(cc.) To pay all or any costs, charges, or expenses preliminary or incidental to or incurred in connection with the promotion, organization, formation, establishment, registration, and incorporation of the Company:

(dd.) The business or purposes of the Company is from time to time to do any one or more of the acts and things herein set forth, either alone or in conjunction with others, or as principals, factors, contractors, or agents, and generally to carry on any business which may seem to the Company capable of being conveniently or profitably carried on in connection with the above, or calculated, directly or indirectly, to enhance the value and render profitable any of the properties or rights of the Company, and to do all and everything necessary, suitable, and convenient or proper for the accomplishment of any of the purposes or the attainment of any one or more of the objects herein enumerated or incidental to the powers herein named, or which shall at any time appear to be conducive or expedient for the protection or benefit of the Company. And it is hereby declared that in the interpretation of this clause the meaning of any of the objects of the Company, shall not be restricted by reference to any other objects or by the juxtaposition of two or more objects, and in the event of any ambiguity this clause shall be constructed in such manner as to widen and not to restrict the powers of the Company.
